

Wednesday 8th April 2015

A belated April Fool? Not quite, as these stunning sculptures commissioned by Southway Housing will brighten up greenspaces not far from the banks of the mighty River Mersey in South Manchester. They will also provide a fitting backdrop to some of the soon to be sown millions of Wildflowers as part of the kew Grow Wild! Tale of Two Cities project..

For more information contact philippa Reece on :

P.Reece@southwayhousing.co.uk

□

