

Monday 20th April 2015

Models wearing beautiful dresses made of wildflowers paraded along the central reservation of Princess Parkway to promote the Kew Grow Wild England flagship project "a Tale of Two Cities". Millions of wildflowers seed have now been sown along the parkway and surrounding areas, with more to follow in autumn..

for more information go to:

<https://www.growwilduk.com/content/flagship-site-and-community-project-funding>

